

Mozart Lodge #121

September 2024

From The East

Brethren,

I sincerely hope you had plenty of opportunity to enjoy quality time with family and friends. Nothing else in life really matters. In these stressful times of Hi inflation, constant aggravation and uncertainty, life's storms appearing on the horizon from seemingly every direction, the only relief is in the company of loved ones.

As September's quick approach, there is some solace to be found, in reconnecting with the Brethren, both old and new. I know I always look forward to our release from darkness and know that others do too.

I much appreciate the support I have received from you and intend to do my best to improve myself in Token of the confidence you have placed in me, in spite of all my short comings.
